

Conjunction --- (but)

The conjunction 'but' is used to show contrast between two words, phrases or sentences. It is also used to show opposite ideas.

➤ Using 'but' to show opposite ideas.

1. A mountain is high but a hill is low.

2. A mountain is difficult to climb but a hill is easy to climb.

3. In summer it is hot but in winter it is cold.

➤ Using 'but' to show contrasting ideas.

1. Tommy raises his hand but he gives a wrong answer.

2. Dan hurts himself while falling off his bicycle, but he does not cry.

3. Goldilocks is hungry but the porridge is too hot.