

Countable and uncountable nounsA Fill in the blanks with much or many.

1. How many books did you buy? (books are countable)
2. Many pupils are absent today. (pupils are countable)
3. We have not received much rain this week. (rain are uncountable)
4. How much water is there in the tank? (water is uncountable)
5. She has collected many coins. (coins are countable)
6. There are many pages in our books. (pages are countable)
7. I have bought many pencils for my exams. (pupils are countable)
8. Mother puts too much sugar in her tea. (sugar is uncountable)
9. My uncle has many puppies. (puppies are countable)
10. How much oil do you need? (oil is uncountable)

B Fill in the blanks with a few and a little.

1. There were a few people in the park.
2. You should put a little honey in your juice for a better taste.
3. Father spreads a little butter on his bread.
4. They only have a few carrots left.
5. My sister asks me to do a few things for her.