

Science Answers

Animals in their habitats

1. Choose the correct answer to fill in the blank spaces.

- (a) Fish live in the sea and in the rivers.
- (b) Some crabs live in the sand.
- (c) A deer lives in the forest.
- (d) Birds build their nests in trees.
- (e) An earthworm lives in a hole in the soil.
- (f) Monkeys live on branches of trees.
- (g) A frog and a crocodile live both on land and in water.
- (h) We can see crocodiles at La Vanille Crocodile Park.

2. Fill in the blanks with the correct answer.

- (a) The habitat is a place where animals live and get food to eat.
- (b) The habitat also gives protection to the animals in case of bad weather and other dangers.
- (c) The habitat allows animals to care for their young ones
- (d) During visits to the forests I should be careful not to disturb animals
- (e) I must never destroy the habitat of an animal.

3. Fill in the blanks with the correct answer.

- a) Amphibians are animals that live both on land and in water.
- b) An animal that lives in the desert is the camel.
- c) Snakes and lizards also live in the desert.
- d) Birds and wasps find shelter in a nest
- e) Bats find shelter in caves.
- f) Deer find shelter in dense forests.

4. Complete the following questions.

(a) Which animal lives on trees and moves from one branch to another? The monkey. (b)

Can a deer live in water? No

(c) Why?

Because the deer cannot swim in water.

Because the deer cannot breathe in water.

(d) Why does a fish live in water and not on land?

The fish has gills to breathe in water.

The fish move in water using its fins and tail.